

Financial Management in Tough Times

More and more organisations are facing reductions in traditional sources of funding as grants are reduced and we move to more commissioned services. We also face much more uncertainty and less funding generally. This workshop aims to give you tools and techniques to plan ahead with confidence – even if the future is to close down,

Course Information
Tuesday 17th July 2012	SDVS 131 – 141 North Walls Stafford ST16 3AD	9.15am for 9.30am to 4:30pm	Band 1 - £69 Band 2- £79 Band 3 - £99 NB A light lunch is included

Who should attend Treasurers, managers and finance staff working within voluntary and community groups and social enterprises

Aims: The workshop aims to give you the tools to plan ahead for your organisation

Topics covered include

- Cash flow,
- Accounting systems and reports,
- Budgeting and planning,
- Costs and pricing.
- The practicalities of closing down.

Trainer: John O'Brien from CA Plus. He has worked in this field for many years and chairs the Community Accountancy National Network. For more information see www.caplus.org.uk